manitou lake bible camp

Amid the devastation the camp faced earlier this week, we stand united and remain thankful that no one was injured by the fire and are hopeful for the camp's future ahead.

God is still good, all the time.

Please continue to pray for the staff as they work together with the local board, One Hope Canada and the insurance providers to navigate next steps.

If you wish to donate to the camp as they get back on their feet, pls visit:
